Murfreesboro, TN
October 1-2, 2002

GIRLS RESULTS – FINAL ROUND

Creek Wood's Elizabeth Dotson Wins Second Championship, Sets Record; Davidson Academy Wins Their Seventh State Championship

MURFREESBORO - - - Trailing by one stroke heading into the final day of competition, Elizabeth Dotson shot a 68 (33-35) to capture her second state championship in three years. She finished with a two-day total of 139, the lowest ever in state tournament history, to win the 2002 Class A-AA State Golf Championship. Her final day score of 68 is tied for the second lowest 18-hole individual score in history. Dotson, a junior, edged out Seymour's Jennifer Davis, last year's champion, by two strokes for the title. Davis' two-day total of 141 is tied for the fourth best 36-hole individual score. Dotson won her first championship in 2000 as a freshman. She shot a 149 that year to edge out Davis by two strokes.

Jamey Dillard shot a 73 on both days and Lauren Oeser had a two-day total of 153 (78-75) to combine for a 296 to give Davidson Academy their seventh state golf championship. They are tied with Girls Preparatory School and Baylor School for the most titles ever. Davidson Academy had won six consecutive titles from 1995-2000. Their team score of 296 is tied for the third best team score. The 1997 state championship team from Davidson Academy is the other team to shoot a 296. Dillard finished in third in individual competition. Her two-day score is tied for the tenth best score at the state tournament.

Christian Academy of Knoxville's Anna-Claire Daniels finished tied for fourth place with Rachel Ingram of University School of Johnson City. Both finished eight strokes behind Dotson with a 147. Daniels combined with teammate Mary A. Orr to give Christian Academy of Knoxville a runner-up finish. CAK won the state championship last year.

2002 Class A-AA State Golf Tournament

Old Fort Golf Course

Murfreesboro, TN

October 1-2, 2002

GIRLS RESULTS – FIRST ROUND

Rachel Ingram of University School Johnson City Shoots 70 to Lead By One After Day One; Davidson Academy In Hunt For It's Seventh State Championship

MURFREESBORO - - - Rachel Ingram of University School of Johnson City shot a 35 on the front and back nine to take a one-stroke lead after the first day of competition at the Class A-AA state golf championship at Old Fort Golf Course. Ingram had three birdies and one bogie despite the wet conditions that were brought on by a one-hour rain delay early this morning. Her two-under par score is tied for the third best 18-hole individual score at the state tournament. Play was delayed for a little more than an hour this morning by rain.

Trailing directly behind Ingram is Seymour's Jennifer Davis and Creek Wood's Elizabeth Dotson, who each shot a 71 to finished tied for second place. Their scores of 71 are tied for the sixth best 18-hole individual score at the state tournament. Davis, a senior, entered the 2002 A-AA state golf championship as the defending champion. She also finished runner-up in 2000 as a freshman. She recently returned from the Junior Ryder Cup, which was held in Dublin, Ireland the week of the Ryder Cup. Dotson, a junior, finished fourth in last year's tournament and won the state championship in 2000 as a freshman. She previously attended David Lipscomb High School, but is attending Creek Wood, a new high school in Dickson County that opened this year.

Jamey Dillard's score of 73 combined with teammate Ginna Beazley's score of 75 to give Davidson Academy a seven-stroke lead in team competition. Their team score of 148 is the seventh best 18-hole team score in state tournament history. Dillard is three strokes behind the leader and in fourth place. Davidson Academy is vying for their seventh state title. It would tie them with Girls Preparatory School and Chattanooga Baylor for the most team titles in state history. They previously won six consecutive state titles from 1995-2000.

Anna Claire Daniels' score of 74 combined with teammate Mary A. Orr's 81 to give Christian Academy of Knoxville a team score of 155 to put them in second place and seven strokes behind Davidson Academy.

Rebekah Wilson of Donelson Christian Academy shot a 73 to finish tied with Jamey Dillard for fourth place heading into tomorrow's deciding competition. Audra Williams of Harpeth shot a 74 to put her in a tie for sixth place with CAK's Anna Claire Daniels. They are both four strokes behind the leader.
