BOYS RESULTS – FINAL ROUND

Baylor's Seth Brandon Wins State Championship and Sets New 36-Hole Record; Baylor Wins Tenth Team Championship

WINCHESTER - - - It was another record first day for Baylor's Seth Brandon. The senior golfer, who shot a 63 (30-33) yesterday to tie the state tournament record for best 18-hole individual score, complemented that with a 67 during the final day of competition for a new state tournament record with a 36-hole individual score of 130. The previous record of 132 was held by former Baylor golfer Richard Spangler, who shot a 132 in 1995.

Brandon combined with teammates Harris English, John Barnett, Matt Cunningham, and Chris Farnsworth to give Baylor a 36-hole team score of 565 and their tenth state golf championship. Their team score set a new state tournament record for lowest 36-hole team score. The previous record of 573 was set by Baylor in 1995.

This is the sixth time that both the Baylor boys and girls golf teams have won state titles in the same year. They have a combined 19 titles between them.

Scott Tashie of Memphis University School finished with a 137 (68-69) to finish runner-up and seven strokes behind Baylor's Seth Brandon. Tashie helped lead MUS to the team runner-up title. They finished with a team score of 580, which is tied for the third lowest 36-hole team score in state tournament history. Knoxville Webb finished one stroke behind them with a team score of 581.

Logan Young of Briarcrest finished in third with a 139. Baylor's Harris English and Bobby Hudson of MUS both finished tied for fourth with a 36-hole score of 140.

Baylor's Seth Brandon Ties Course Record and State Record With 63 at Bear Trace; Baylor Leads Team Competition

WINCHESTER - - - It was a record first day for Baylor's Seth Brandon. The senior golfer shot a 63 (30-33) to finish the first day of the Division II state golf tournament with a five-stroke lead over Scott Tashie of Memphis University School who shot a 68 (34-34). Brandon's first day score of 63 ties the state tournament record for best 18-hole individual score. Former Baylor golfer Richard Spangler shot a 63 in 1995.

Brandon eagled both holes number three and sixteen. He birdied five other holes and only shot a bogie on one hole.

Brandon's score of 30 on the front nine also ties a state tournament record for best nine hole individual score. Spangler also holds is one of the other two to have shot a 30 on nine holes the state tournament. Clarksville's Mason Rudolph did it in 1952.

Seth \Brandon's teammate Harris English finished with a 70 (32-38) to finish tied with Neil Goodson of Knoxville Webb for third place after day one. Brandon and English combined with teammates John Barnett (75), and Matt Cunningham (76) to give Baylor a five-stroke lead over Knoxville Webb for the team title. Chris Farnsworth shot a 77 (35-42) after day one of competition. Their team score of 284 is the third lowest 18-hole team score in state tournament history.

Baylor is going after their tenth state golf championship. They won three consecutive titles from 1999-2001 and finished runner-up to McCallie at last year's championship.

Four individuals, Neil Goodson of Webb School, Harris English of Baylor, Drew Maliniak of Christian Brothers, and Logan Young of Briarcrest are all tied for third with a first day score of 70. Five individuals shot a 72 to finish day one tied for seventh place.

Ross Sutton of Battle Ground Academy provided a highlight moment when he shot a hole-in-one on the par three seventeenth hole. Sutton finished the day with an 85 (46-39).
