

2003 Class AAA State Golf Tournament

Bear Trace - Cumberland Mountain State Park

Crossville, TN

September 30 - October 1, 2003

GIRLS RESULTS – FINAL ROUND

Taylor Cooper of Rossvie Wins 2003 Class AAA Girls Title; Cooper Leads Rossvie to First Ever Team Title

CROSSVILLE- -Rossvie's Taylor Cooper was the only girl at the Class AAA state tournament to shoot two rounds in the 70's at The Bear Trace golf course at Cumberland Mountain State Park. Her two rounds of 73 and 77 gave her a two day total of 150 and her first ever state championship. Cooper, a senior, finished seventh in last year's tournament, tied for 15th in 2001, and tied for 35th as a freshman in 2000.

Taylor Cooper combined with teammate Staci Lynch, who finished with a 171 (87-84) to give Rossvie their first ever state golf championship. Rossvie entered the day trailing defending champion Morristown West by one stroke. Morristown West finished in third with a team score of 338.

Mallory Bishop and Jesse Maier combined to give Bearden a team score of 336 and a runner-up finish.

Cookeville's Kayla Stewart, who headed into the final day three strokes behind Cooper, finished with a total of 157 (76-81) for runner-up honors. Mallory Bishop of Bearden, last year's runner-up, finished the tournament with a 160 (80-80) for third place.

Erika Thornton of Farragut finished with a two-day total of 164 (83-81) and a fourth place finish in individual competition. Megan Fox, also from Farragut, finished with a score of 165 (80-85) to finish one stroke behind her teammate and tied for fifth place.

Jillian Jones of Cumberland County finish tied for fifth with Bearden's Fox with a score of 165 (83-82). Megan Cantwell of Morristown West finished in seventh with a score of 166 (81-85). Cantwell's sister, Holly, won the Class AAA individual title last year as a senior at Morristown West.

2003 Class AAA State Golf Tournament

Bear Trace - Cumberland Mountain State Park

Crossville, TN

September 30 - October 1, 2003

GIRLS RESULTS – FIRST ROUND

Rossview's Taylor Cooper Leads by Two Strokes After Day One; Morristown West Leads Rossview by One-Stroke in Team Competition

CROSSVILLE - - Taylor Cooper of Rossview shot a one over par 73 (37-36) to finish three strokes ahead of Cookeville's Kayla Stewart after day one of the Class AAA state golf tournament. The first tee times of the day were delayed for an hour due to frost at the Bear Trace at Cumberland Mountain State Park, which is the host course of a state tournament for the first time.

Kayla Stewart's first day score of 76 (35-41) gives her a two-stroke lead over Morristown West's Shayla Forsey, who shot a 78 (36-42) and is in third after day one.

Bearden's Mallory Bishop finished day one with a score of 80 (38-42) to put her in fourth and one stroke ahead of Megan Cantwell, a sophomore at Morristown West, who shot an 81 (40-41). Bishop, a junior, finished in second place at last year's tournament. Megan Cantwell's sister, Holly, defeated Bishop in a sudden death playoff to win last year's title.

Bolton's Kellye Belcher, Columbia's Sarah Hunt, Farragut's Erika Thronton, and Cumberland County's Jillian Jones all shot an 83 to finish day one tied for seventh and seven strokes off the lead.

Shayla Forsey and Megan Cantwell combined to give Morristown West a first day team score of 159 and a one-stroke lead over Rossview. Rossview's Taylor Cooper and Staci Lynch combined to give them a team score of 160 heading into the final day of competition.

Morristown West won their first state golf title last year and finished runner-up the previous year.

Houston, led by Lauren Nelms' 84 (45-39) and Melissa Rosloniec's 85 (41-44) is ten strokes off the lead and in third place with a team score of 169.
