GIRLS RESULTS – FINAL ROUND

Baylor's Beth Felts Wins Second State Title Baylor Wins Ninth Consecutive Team Championship

WINCHESTER - - - Beth Felts of Baylor School shot a 141 (68-73) at the Bear Trace Golf Course at Tims Ford State Park to win her second state championship in three years. The senior golfer's first day score of 68 is tied for the second best 18-hole individual score in state tournament history. Her two day total of 141 is tied for the fourth lowest 36-hole individual score in state tournament history.

Felts combined with teammate Catherine Hicks, who finished with a two-day total of 154 (74-80) and tied for fourth, to give Baylor a team score of 295 and their ninth consecutive state team title. Their nine consecutive titles is the most consecutive titles won by a team in any sport. Baylor's team score is the third lowest 36-hole team score in state tournament history.

This is the sixth time that both the Baylor boys and girls golf teams have won state titles in the same year. They have a combined 19 titles between them.

St. Cecilia's Ashleigh Garman shot a 70 on day two to finish runner-up and just five strokes behind Felts for the championship. University School of Nashville's Calle Nielson finished the tournament in third with a 149 (77-72). She combined with teammate Sydney Bell, who shot a 160 (87-73), to give University School of Nashville their first ever team runner-up finish. Bell finished tied for sixth place with Baylor's Brooke Pancake.

Taylor Bunnell of St. Benedict finished tied with Baylor's Catherine Hicks for fourth with a score of 154.

GIRLS RESULTS – FIRST ROUND

Baylor's Beth Felts and Catherine Hicks Lead Individuals and Combine to Give Baylor Lead for Team Championship

WINCHESTER - - - Beth Felts of Baylor School in Chattanooga shot a 68 (35-33) to take a six stroke lead into the final day of competition at the 2003 Division II state golf tournament. She won the individual state title as a sophomore in 2001 and finished tied for fourth at last year's tournament. Her first day score of 68 is tied for the second best 18-hole individual score in state tournament history. Sarah Jacobs of Davidson Academy (1999) and Elizabeth Dotson of Creek Wood (2002) are the other two golfers to shoot a 68. Jacobs set the record when she shot a 67 in 1998.

Felts combined with teammate Catherine Hicks, who shot a 74 (35-39), to give Baylor a team score of 142 and 22-stroke lead over University School of Nashville in team competition. Their team score of 142 is the second lowest 18-hole team score in state tournament history. The state record of 138 was set by Davidson Academy in 1998. Baylor is going after a state record ninth state championship. They have won their eight previous championships consecutively, beginning in 1995, for the most consecutive titles won by a team in any sport. Baylor's Brooke Pancake shot a 78 (37-41) to finished day one in sixth place.

St. Benedict's Taylor Bunnell, who finished runner-up at last year's state tournament, shot a 75 (38-37) to finish day one in third place and seven strokes off the lead. Asleigh Garman of St. Cecilia shot a 76 (35-41) to finish day one in fourth with University School of Nashville's Calle Nielson one stroke behind her with a 77 heading into the final day of competition.
