CHATTANOOGA -- Goodpasture won its third state tournament of the 1990s and fourth since 1988 with a 7-6 come-from-behind victory in the TSSAA Division II Baseball Tournament Friday at Historic Engel Stadium.

The Cougars (28-15) took the lead in the sixth inning after trailing 5-0. Justin Brown's inside the park home run to the center field wall plated three runners to give Goodpasture a 7-5 lead. The home run was Brown's third of the season.

Mark Anderson hit a grand slam over the wall in left field and into the street to give the Purple Wave a 4-0 lead. Anderson's 10th home run, and second of the day, was estimated to have traveled almost 400 feet.

Tim Lloyd scored the final run when John Sykes reached on an error.

Goodpastured started chipping away at the Wave's lead with three runs in the fifth inning.

Ryan Boyer drove in a pair of runs with a single to center with the bases loaded. Joe Knox, who was running with the count full and two outs, scored when the centerfielder's throw home went to the backstop behind home plate.
