

1997 TSSAA Class A-AA State Girls' Soccer Tournament
Finley Stadium
Chattanooga, TN

MATCH 2

Chattanooga Christian 2, Anderson County 1

Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association completed the second A-AA Semifinals Girls State Soccer Tournament with Chattanooga Christian defeating Anderson County 2-1.

During the first half Chattanooga Christian out shot Anderson County 8-3, but neither team was able to put the ball in the net.

Anderson County started strong in the second half with a goal by Heidi Poore. Anderson County could not keep the 1-0 lead due to the intense pressure of Chattanooga Christian. Kennisha Cann scored with an assist by Nikki Crutcher. Cann's goal tied the game for the Lady Chargers causing the teams to play overtime.

After the second 10 minute period the game was still tied forcing the teams to play a five minute sudden death period. During this five minute period Chattanooga Christian's Ashley Harbert was able to score the winning goal from Nikki Crutcher before falling down with an injury.

Chattanooga Christian advances to play Ridgway in the A-AA Girls State Soccer Finals.

Score	1	2	OT	Final
Chattanooga Christian	0	1	1	2
Anderson County	0	1	0	1

Shots: Chattanooga Christian 17
Anderson County 7

Saves: Chattanooga Christian, Jonesy Gilbert 6
Anderson County, Amy Day 8

Goals: Chattanooga Christian, Kennisha Cann (Nikki Crutcher, assist) Ashley Harbert (Nikki Crutcher, assist) Anderson County, Heidi Poore