1999 Class AAA State Baseball Tournament

May 26 - May 28, 1999 · Chattannoga, TN

Notes:

CHATTANOOGA -- Dusty Johnson scattered five hits and won his 11th game of the season as Farragut eked out a 2-1 victory over Hendersonville in the first round of the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament Wednesday at Historic Engel Stadium.

Johnson improved to 11-0, winning a pitcher's duel against Hendersonville's Jeremy Hughett.

Johnson walked one and struck out three and was helped by his defense, which turned three double plays, including one that ended the game after Cory White had singled with one out.

Hughett (9-6) sparkled on the hill as well, scattering six hits, walking one and striking out four.

The Admirals took a 1-0 advantage in the second inning when Jake Allen, who led off with a single and went to third on Jason Wright's single, scored on an errant pickoff throw to first base. Joey Hungate, who was running for Wright, was thrown out at third.

Hendersonville would tie the game at 1-1 in the fifth inning.

Brandon Hall led off the inning with a double and scored on Cory White's single. White was sacrificed to second with one out, but the Commandos could not plate him.

Farragut got the run back in the bottom of the fifth to retake the lead at 2-1.

Hungate, pinch-running for Davis Burklin, scored on a wild pitch after moving to second on Jay Sadlowe's single and to third on Matt Maples' groundout.

Jason Wright drove in the first two runs with a single. Chris Goodrich and Davis Burklin also had RBI singles in the frame.

Wright would finish 2-for-4 with a home run and drove in three runs. Burklin was 2-for-3 with 2 RBI and a dobule. Steven Curtis scored three times, drove in two runs and had a double for the Admirals (34-9).

Houston's highlight was back-to-back homers in the sixth by Josh Mungle and Erik Filsinger, which cut the score to 10-4.

Farragut touched home twice in the seventh to ice the victory.

Jay Sadlowe picked up the victory for Farragut. He pitched 5-1/3 innings, allowed six hits, four runs, three earned, walked two and struck out four.

CHATTANOOGA -- Oakland's baseball team won the school's second state championship of the school year with a 10-0 victory over Farragut in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament Friday at Historic Engel Stadium.

The school's football team won the Class 5A championship in December.

Tournament most valuable player Casey Rauschenberger provided the pop in Oakland's lineup. The Patriot third baseman doubled off the wall in left to drive in a run. His team thought the shot had gone over the wall. In the second inning, Rauschenberger left little doubt when he powered a shot over the 25-foot high wall in right-center to plate three runs, his 12th round-tripper of the season.

Jeremy Slayden added a two-run shot, also his 12th, over the wall in right-center in the fourth inning.

Jason Sharber (6-1) allowed two hits, walked one and struck out four hitters.

Matt Maples and Chris Goodrich had the hits for the Admirals (34-10).

The Patriots, ranked in the USA Today Top 25, finish the season with a 38-2 record.
