Brentwood, Rory Shanks 2. Records – Warren County 24-10; Brentwood 27-6.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Bret Dowdy drove in Warren County's only runs and sparked on defense as the Pioneers downed Brentwood 2-1 on Thursday in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament losers' bracket semifinal game.

Dowdy hit a two-run double to left-center field in the second inning to stake Warren County (24-10) to a 2-0 lead. The double followed two walks by Brentwood pitcher Doug Vincent.

Defensively, Dowdy leaped to catch a line drive off the bat of Brentwood leadoff hitter Andrew Reed in the fifth with a runner in scoring position.

Wade Vincent picked up the victory by scattering six hits over 6 2/3 innings. Vincent did not walk or strike out a batter. Geer Gipson coaxed Justin Jordan to line out to Dowdy at second to end the game with the tying run on second.

Brentwood's Doug Vincent suffered the loss despite pitching a two-hitter. Vincent retired 17 of the last 18 batters he faced after allowing Dowdy's double. He also walked three batters and struck out five.

Brentwood ends its season with a 27-6 record.

Brandon Crowe, Richie Delaney (6) and Brian Miller; Steven Morris, Brent Dowdy (5), Chad Young (5) and Bradford Watson. 2B – Science Hill, Mike Radar. HR – Science Hill, Brandon Crowe. Records: Science Hill 31-8; Warren County 23-10.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Brandon Crowe did it all for Science Hill in its 13-2 victory over Warren County in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament on Wednesday.

Crowe pitched five innings and struck out seven while scattering three hits. At the plate, Crowe had two hits, including an inside-the-park home run during a four-run fifth inning, and scored a pair of runs.

Warren County (23-10) took advantage of Science Hill's only error in the first inning to take a 1-0 lead on Wade Vincent's single. The Hilltoppers (31-8) answered with four in the third and added six more in the fifth.

Steven Morris picked up the loss for the Pioneers.

Science Hill will play the winner of Wednesday's Brentwood-Germantown game on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Warren County will play that game's loser on Thursday at 12:30 p.m.

Sean Evans, Steven Morris (4) and Watson Bradford; Ryan Siebert and Joe Hilderbrand. WP – Siebert. LP – Evans. 2B – Watson Bradford 2, Chad McCormick; Germantown, Adam Larson. HR – Germantown, Ben Johnson, Adam Larson. Records – Warren County 24-11; Germantown 35-3.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn. – Germantown powered two more home runs and eliminated Warren County with an 8-3 win in the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament Friday night at Grider Stadium.

The victory advances the Red Devils, who entered the tournament as the No.1 team in the state, into a championship series on Saturday in Winchester, Tenn.

Ben Johnson hit a three-run homer over the left field fence to put Germantown (35-3) on the board.

Warren County rallied back to tie the game at 3-3 in the third inning on Chad McCormick's two-run double.

Germantown put the game away with two in the fourth to take a 6-3 lead on Steven Kines RBI single and Jeremy Hollis' sacrifice fly off losing pitcher Sean Evans.

Adam Larson hit his second home run of the tournament to lead off the sixth inning. Germantown will play Johnson City Science Hill, which defeated the Red Devils 7-3 in a game suspended from Thursday night and resumed on Friday morning.

Warren County finished its season with a 24-11 record.
