CLEVELAND -- Houston rallied with four runs in its final at bat and held off Hendersonville 6-4 in an elimination game Thursday at the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament at Lee University.

Josh Payne hit one of his two doubles in the game, which tied a tournament record, in the sixth inning to seal the victory.

Payne's heroics overshadowed Hendersonville's Worth Scott.

Scott allowed one run in four innings of work on the mound, had two triples, which tied a tournament record, and a double.

The Commandos (20-18) scored two runs in the first and added single runs in the fifth and seventh innings.

The Mustangs (34-10) got on the board with a run in the third, added another in the fifth before rallying from a 3-2 deficit.

CHATTANOOGA -- Nationally-ranked Oakland didn't let Houston jumping out of the gate quick to slow it down.

The Patriots, ranked in the USA Today's Top 25, scored two runs in the bottom of the second to tie the game at 2-2 and scored two in the third to take a 4-2 lead and went on to beat the Mustangs 6-2 in the first round of the TSSAA Class AAA Baseball Tournament at Historic Engel Stadium.

Houston (33-10) scored single runs in the first and second innings to take a 2-0 lead.

Colby Paxton had a RBI-double in the first, scoring Josh Payne, who led off the game with a single. Jeff Stephens had an RBI-single in the second inning, scoring Kyle Sledd, who walked to lead off the inning.

Brian Blaylock and Chuck Akers had RBI singles for Oakland (35-2) in the second inning to tie the game.

Jerry Knox, the Patriots starting pitcher, doubled off the base of the center field wall to drive in two runs in the third inning.

Jeremy Sladen had a run-scoring double and Casey Rauschenberger added an RBI-single in the sixth inning.

Knox ran his record to 12-0, overcoming a shaky start. The Mustangs got three hits in the first two innings and did not get another until Ryan Hultin doubled in the seventh. Knox scattered four hits, walked two and struck out 10.

Daniel DeArmas (10-3) picked up the loss for the Mustangs. He gave up 15 hits, six runs -- all earned -- walked two -- both intentional passes to Brennan King -- and struck out five.
